Citi Appointed as Successor Depositary Bank for GlobalTrans' GDR Program

Citi, acting through Citibank N.A., has been appointed by Globaltrans Investment PLC ("Globaltrans" or "the company") – a leading freight rail transportation group with operations across Russia, the CIS and the Baltic countries – to act as successor depositary bank for its Global Depositary Receipt ("GDR") program.

Globaltrans' Global Depositary Receipts are listed on the London Stock Exchange and trade under the symbol "GLTR". Each GDR represents one ordinary share of the company.

Commenting on the appointment, Dirk Jones, Global Head of Issuer Services, at Citi said: "I am delighted, on behalf of Citi, that Globaltrans has chosen to engage us to bear with them as its Depositary Bank. Citi has a market-leading investor Relations Advisory team and an unrivalled global equity distribution network, which together enable Citi's clients to expand their investor outreach. These unique advantages – together with colleagues around the globe – enable us to bring the power of Citi to bear for each of our clients."
